Our Commitment to Success: Training Ground Rules

A great session starts with shared expectations. These ground rules help us create a focused, respectful, and productive learning environment for everyone.

Together, We Make This Session Count

Arrive on Time

Respect the schedule to maximise collective learning and productivity.

Camera Ready

Keep video on to foster human connection and show your active presence.

Engage Fully

Participate in discussions and exercises — your voice drives the learning.

Stay Present

Silence notifications and give your full attention to the session.

Respect the Flow

Keep mics muted when not speaking; use the chat to share insights.

Let's Grow

Support your peers and contribute to a rewarding experience for all.
